

The Yoxford Yapper

May 2019

Edition 43

Rubbish!

What better way to start the Yapper than with a picture of rubbish. But not just any rubbish this is some of the finest rubbish in the land. Not from Marks and Spencers but collected from the hedgerows and verges that surround the village. Fifteen sacks in all, collected by 14 people dressed in on trend hi vis fluorescent green polyester, combined with couture rubber marigolds and complimented by steel grey litter pickers. All in all a catwalk look to be proud of!

I bet you are all counting the days not until next years
Litter Pick!!

Quiz Night

Poor Sheena's in a panic! Quiz nights are normally a sell out but as yet no one has yet bought tickets for the Quiz Night on Saturday 11th May at 7.00pm. So you'd better get in touch and buy some to calm her nerves. Teams of 8. Tickets £10 for quiz and chilli supper (with vege chilli too) If you don't have a team there will still be spaces. Sheena can be contacted on 07973 863034.

Historical Village Trail.

The Yoxford History Group is in the process of designing a village trail for visitors to help them learn more about the history of the village. They are hoping to raise funds to print it and there will be a small charge to buy one. They have some sponsors but they would like to find more sponsors, either local businesses or individuals to help offset the printing costs. If you would like to contribute contact Lesley Perry via email: lesley@perry72.plus.com

Yoxford History Group

The History Group has its next Exhibition "School days and Health" on Saturday and Sunday 11th -12th May from 10-4pm. They have many photos from the 1950's. Come along and see if you can identify anyone...or maybe yourself. Refreshments available.

Musicians wanted!

The Yapper has been sent the following from a Yoxford resident:

Easter Egg Hunt

The annual Yoxwood Easter Egg Hunt took place on Easter Sunday and was well attended. Almost all the eggs were found...except for one which may still be there!!

Pop Up Cafe

For those who haven't yet tried the Pop Up Cafe it is worth a visit. Mary Berry was unavailable to write a piece for the Yapper on the cakes so the Editor himself had to go and sample them and found them to be delish and not a soggy bottom in sight. The next one will be on Saturday 25th May. So if you fancy coffee, cake, table tennis or just chat then drop everything and rush to the Village Hall.

Produce Show

The growing season is well underway now so its time to look at the entry form and decide which categories you might try to enter this year. There is also the Photographic Competition with Suffolk Coast and Open Category so get snapping. All information on the new Produce Show Website yoxfordproduceshow.btck.co.uk

Yoxford Bell Ringers

The bells of St Peter's have been silent since Christmas Day because of the works taking place in the church. However the bell ringers have still been practising with regular bell ringing taking place at Benhall church on a Thursday evening ready for the reopening of the church in a few weeks time when the bells will once more ring out across the village.

They also had the privilege to ring at Benhall and Theberton on Thursday 18th April along with bells all across England in solidarity with France, Paris and Notre Dame de Paris following the devastating fire at Notre Dame.
